Unrepresented Employees Terms and Conditions

This document establishes the rules governing benefits and working conditions, which are in effect for unrepresented employees and have been approved by the Board of Directors of West County Wastewater (WCW).

This Unrepresented Employee Terms and Conditions provides policies and procedures that affect the working conditions and benefits of unrepresented employees of WCW. Rules, which describe general policies of WCW's personnel system, are found in West County Wastewater's Employee Handbook. These terms and conditions supersedes the WCW Employee Handbook when language conflicts with this Terms & Conditions.

1.0 HOURS, COMPENSATION AND OVERTIME

This Section is intended only to define the normal hours of work and the time for which wages will be paid. Nothing in these rules may be construed as a guarantee of hours of work per day or per week, or of days of work per week. WCW's pay records, practices and procedures will govern the payment of all wages.

1.1 Hours and Days of Work

Full-time non-exempt employees will work a predetermined schedule of 40 hours per week and unpaid lunch breaks, usually five eight-hour days. Employees may request flexible or alternate work schedules in accordance with WCW guidelines.

1.2 Workweek

The workweek will consist of seven days. The specific workweek will be determined based on the employee's work schedule.

1.3 Payment of Wages

Employees will be paid on a bi-weekly retrospective basis, with paydays on alternate Fridays. When a payday falls on a holiday, that pay day will be the preceding workday.

- A. During the term of this agreement, wage ranges for all members of the unrepresented unit will be posted on WCW's website and as such incorporated herein according to the current pay rates and ranges, and in accordance with this article.
- B. 3.25% COLA effective in the first full pay period in July 2022
- C. 3.25% COLA effective in the first full pay period in July 2023
- D. 3.25% COLA effective in the first full pay period in July 2024

1.4 Rest Periods

Employees must have their lunch break approximately four to six hours after their assigned shifts begin.

1.5 Wage Ranges

Wage ranges will be reviewed and adjusted for Board of Directors approval, as appropriate. Typically, this will occur on or near July 1st or as deemed necessary for optimal operations.

Any employee in a classification for which the wage range is adjusted downward who is at Step E of the wage range, will continue to receive their present wage rate. Such wage rate will be designated as "Y-rated" or frozen. The employee's wage rate will continue to be "Y-rated" until the new wage range meets or exceeds the "Y-rated" wage rate.

Any employee in a classification for which the wage range is adjusted downward who is at a step lower than Step E of the wage range, will be moved to a step at least equal to their current salary or Step E of the adjusted wage rate. Employees who are moved to Step E of the wage range will be designated as “Y-rated” or frozen. The employee’s wage rate at Step E will continue to be “Y-rated” until the new wage range meets or exceeds the “Y-rated” Step E wage rate.

1.6 Overtime for FLSA Non-Exempt Employees

All FLSA non-exempt employees who are required to work in excess of their regular workweek must be paid overtime compensation at the rate of one and one-half times their base pay rate for time worked in excess of the regular workweek. For the purpose of calculating time worked, the regular workweek excludes holidays and paid leave. Employees may not work overtime without the express prior approval of their supervisor.

1.7 Regular Rate of Pay

For computing FLSA mandated overtime, the regular rate of pay will be computed according to Fair Labor Standards Act requirements.

1.8 Bilingual Premium Pay Differential

An employee who is required as an essential part of their job to routinely and consistently provide non-English language services, as determined by WCW will receive a Bilingual Premium Pay Differential of $65 per pay period. Only those employees who possess and can demonstrate second language competency, are entitled to receive this differential. The employee must agree to use the bilingual skill during their normal work shift regardless of assignment.

1.9 Working in a Higher Classification

Employees may be assigned to work temporarily in a higher classification. To be eligible for a higher classification, an employee must work a minimum of one-half day, meet the minimum qualifications of the higher classification, and perform duties of the higher classification. Employees meeting these requirements will be compensated at the lowest step of the higher classification that provides at least a five percent differential. Department Directors and the Deputy General Manager are excluded from this provision.

For training purposes, an employee not meeting all of the minimum qualifications for a higher classification may be temporarily assigned for a minimum of five workdays, to perform the duties of the higher classification and will receive a $30 per day differential for each day in the assignment. Such assignments will be in writing and will indicate the reasons, length and duties of the assignment.

The General Manager or their designee must approve assignments in advance.

2.0 PROBATIONARY PERIOD

2.1 Length of Probationary Period

All original and promotional appointments to positions in the regular service must be subject to a Probationary Period. The length of the Probationary Period will be 12 months of actual service. Probationary employees in an initial appointment with WCW are at-will employees. Probationary employees are to be evaluated by their immediate supervisors every four months. At their sole discretion, the General Manager or their designee may shorten or extend the length of a probationary period for specific and defensible reasons and on a case-by-case basis for no shorter or longer than one-half of the original probationary period.

2.2 Objectives of Probationary Period

The Probationary Period will be regarded as a part of the selection process and will be used to closely observe and evaluate the employee's work, to secure the most effective adjustment of a new employee to their position and to eliminate any probationary employee whose performance does not meet the required standards of work.

2.3 Rejection During Probationary Period

During the Probationary Period, the General Manager, or their designee, without cause and without the right of appeal, may reject an employee from employment at any time.

2.4 Rejection During Promotion Probationary Period

An employee rejected during the Probationary Period following a promotional appointment will be reinstated to the classification from which they were promoted unless they are subject to disciplinary action and are discharged from employment.

2.5 Performance-Based Wage Increases

Upon satisfactory completion of the Probationary Period, the employee may qualify for a merit increase. Advancement within the established wage range may be granted by the General Manager, or their designee, based upon performance reviews conducted by the employee's supervisor at the completion of the Probationary Period, and annually thereafter, until such time as the employee achieves the top of the applicable wage range in the then-current Wage Schedule.

The intent of this policy is to provide an employee performance review every 12 months. No wage advancement will be granted until a performance evaluation is completed and approved.

The performance evaluation due date is applicable even if no performance-based wage adjustment is provided either (1) due to a performance rated as "needing improvement” or (2) as a result of an employee being at the top of the wage range. If a merit increase is approved, the effective date will be the first day of the pay period immediately following the end of the period being evaluated. If the end of the period being evaluated is the first day of a pay period, the merit increase will be effective that day.

3.0 VACATION LEAVE

3.1 Vacation Accrual

Employees will earn annual Vacation Leave as follows:

Annual Accrual	Years of Actual Service based on Date of Hire
120 hours (3 work weeks)	During the 1 st through 5 th years
160 hours (4 work weeks)	During the 6 th through 15 th years
200 hours (5 work weeks)	During the 16 th through 25 th years
240 hours (6 work weeks)	During the 26 th through subsequent years

Vacation Accrual will be posted to an employee’s account for each pay period in which the employee is in a paid status for more than half of the pay period. The amount accrued will be equal to the employee’s annual accrual hours divided by 26 and rounded to the nearest 0.01 hours (0.005 rounding up). In the event an employee’s accrual rate changes during a pay period, the Vacation Leave credited during that period will be at the higher rate.

In lieu of Personal Leave, employees covered by these Terms & Conditions who have worked for six months or more shall earn 40 additional hours of Vacation Leave per fiscal year, to be accrued as of the first pay period in January of each year.

In the first calendar year of employment, employees shall earn these additional hours of Vacation Leave as follows:

Date Six Months of Employment Completed	Accrual of Additional Vacation Leave
Between January 1 and June 30	40 hours
Between July 1 and December 31	20 hours

Employees on unpaid status and not qualifying for leave accrual, per section 7 of the Terms & Conditions, on the date that the leave is accrued, shall receive a pro-rated accrual upon return to paid status based upon the percentage of the calendar year remaining at the time of return to paid status.

3.2 Leave Approval

Employee's supervisor must approve vacation Leave, in advance. In the case of an emergency, Vacation Leave use may be granted with little or no advance notice.

3.3 Leave Use

Employees shall not be eligible to use Vacation Leave in advance of posting in the payroll system. Employees cannot take Vacation Leave in excess of their accrued Vacation Leave except under conditions outlined in section 7.

Part-time employees working a minimum of 20 hours per week accrue Vacation Leave benefits on a pro rata basis. Employees, who work less than 20 hours per week and temporary employees, unless otherwise authorized, do not accrue Vacation Leave benefits.

3.4 Leave Scheduling

The department will determine the times during the calendar year at which an employee may take their Vacation Leave. If the requirements of the service are such that the department cannot permit the employee to take any annual Vacation Leave or any part of such leave within a particular calendar year, the employee may accrue Vacation Leave according to the Terms & Conditions.

3.5 Maximum Vacation Leave Accumulation

Employees may accrue Vacation Leave up to a maximum cumulative total of 400 hours. If an employee reaches 400 hours, they shall cease to accrue Vacation Leave until they are below the 400-hour maximum. Supervisors should be flexible in granting employee Vacation Leave requests to employees approaching the accrual limit.

3.6 Payout Upon Separation or Extended Unpaid Leave

Upon separation, including death, extended military leave or other extended leave without pay, an employee or their estate must be paid for all accrued unused Vacation Leave at the employee's hourly rate of pay at the time of their termination.

3.7 Holidays Occurring During Leave

If an observed WCW holiday occurs during an employee's scheduled Vacation Leave, no deduction from accrued Vacation Leave will be made for the holiday period.

3.8 Vacation Leave in Lieu of Sick Leave

Vacation Leave must not be used in lieu of accrued Sick Leave for absences due to illness. If accrued sick leave is exhausted, Vacation Leave may be used for absences due to illness, only if such leave is approved General Manager or their designee.

3.9 Vacation Sell Back

Employees may elect cash in lieu of using vacation leave accrual subject to the following limitations:

- A. Twice per calendar year, employees have the option to sell back to WCW up to 80 hours of accumulated vacation leave. To qualify, the employee must maintain a minimum of 64 hours of accrued vacation leave at the time of the request and submit the form to payroll during the month of May and/or November. Qualified requests will be paid out on the next available payroll process.

4.0 SICK LEAVE

4.1 Accrual

All full-time regular employees are eligible to accrue 3.70 hours of Sick Leave per pay period beginning the first day of employment, if the employee is in a paid status for at least 41 hours in the applicable pay period. Part-time regular employees employed for at least 20 hours per pay period are eligible to accrue sick leave on a pro rata basis. Employees may accrue Sick Leave up to a maximum cumulative total of 1,000 hours. Employee's whose sick leave balances reach 1,000 hours, must cease to accrue sick leave until the balance is below the 1,000-hour maximum.

4.2 Sick Leave Not a Privilege

Sick Leave shall be allowed in compliance federal and state laws.

4.3 Family Sick Leave

Subject to the provisions of applicable WCW policies and procedures, employees may use up to one-half of their accrued Sick Leave in a calendar year to care for a family member. Family members will be as defined in the Healthy Workplaces, Healthy Families Act of 2014, currently located in California Labor Code 245, et seq. The General Manager, at their discretion, may expand this definition to include other persons with whom the employee has extremely close personal ties.

4.4 Notice to Supervisor

In order to use Sick Leave to cover an absence due to an unanticipated illness, the employee must notify their supervisor no less than one hour before the time set for the beginning of the employee's regular work shift. Leave for non-emergency medical appointments must be requested in advance of the workday.

4.5 Injury Incurred in Outside Employment

Unless otherwise required by law, Sick Leave may be denied for an injury sustained by an employee while working for another employer.

4.6 Sick Leave Benefits and State Disability Insurance/Paid Family Leave
Eligible employees must use their accrued Sick Leave benefits during the normal waiting period before being paid benefits from State Disability Insurance or Paid Family Leave. Following the waiting period, an employee must provide Human Resources with their disability, worker's compensation, or Paid Family Leave award and will continue to receive accrued Sick Leave pay on an integrated basis until the accrual is exhausted.

4.7 Workers' Compensation and Wage Continuation
A third-party provider administers workers' Compensation benefits. WCW will integrate Worker's Compensation and other benefits in accordance with state law.

4.8 Sick Leave Upon Retirement
Immediately prior to retirement, employees whose record of service with WCW has been satisfactory and who otherwise qualify for retirement through the official retirement system of WCW, may be granted time off from the job, with full compensation, for a period of time not to exceed the amount of their accumulated Sick Leave time, or 60 workdays, whichever is shorter.

Employees who want to use all or any part of their accumulated Sick Leave in conjunction with their retirement must provide WCW with written notification of their intent to retire at least 90 days prior to the intended effective retirement date. Failure to provide this timely written notification may result in a refusal to grant the employee the opportunity to use any accumulated Sick Leave in conjunction with retirement.

4.9 Sick Leave Upon Separation
Separation from employment with WCW will cause cancellation of any unused Sick Leave accrual, except as provided in Sick Leave Upon Retirement, and no payment other than that provided for in this section will be made for such accrued but unused Sick Leave. If an employee returns to WCW employment within 365 days after the date of separation, the former accrued Sick Leave balance will be credited to the employee's Sick Leave account. Absence from employment for more than 365 days, other than for an approved leave of absence, will preclude the employee from receiving credit for any Sick Leave accrued during their prior service.

- C. When an employee receives an SDI check, they will contact Payroll staff if the amount of benefit is less than the maximum amount. The difference between the amount paid and the maximum amount of benefit will be made up from the employee's available Sick or Vacation Leave balances.
- D. Supplementary to State Disability Insurance payments. An employee entitled to SDI benefits will receive in addition thereto such portion of
